

Message from Terry Lawler,
Executive Director,
New York Women in Film & Television

I am very sorry I was not able to attend this very special event celebrating collaboration.

Since the art forms we work in are so dependent upon collaboration, and since women make such good collaborators, the Collaboration Awards is a perfect way to celebrate women artists.

Congratulations to Jennifer Gibbs and Kristen Marting on your award.

Congratulations also to Melanie Adelman & Elie Dvorkin, Shirley Lauro & Alexis Green, Carol Todd & Catherine Eaton, Ruth Margraff & Elyse Singer.

And Congratulations to the New York Coalition of Women in the Arts & Media and thank you for the important work you do.
